

Contents

|                                                                                                                     |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Acknowledgements .....                                                                                              | 11  |
| List of Abbreviations .....                                                                                         | 17  |
| CHAPTER I                                                                                                           |     |
| Introduction .....                                                                                                  | 19  |
| The Muftiate as an Institution .....                                                                                | 19  |
| Research Questions .....                                                                                            | 24  |
| Research Framework .....                                                                                            | 26  |
| Primary and Secondary Sources .....                                                                                 | 28  |
| Previous Research .....                                                                                             | 32  |
| Methodological Considerations .....                                                                                 | 43  |
| Theoretical Considerations .....                                                                                    | 46  |
| Economic Concepts and Theoretical Approaches Applied by the Economicsof Religion to the Study of Religion ..... | 48  |
| The Religious Market in Russia .....                                                                                | 51  |
| The Issue of State Intervention in the Religious Market .....                                                       | 61  |
| Douglass North's Theory of Institutions .....                                                                       | 66  |
| A Question of Language .....                                                                                        | 67  |
| CHAPTER II                                                                                                          |     |
| The Muftiate as an Institution in the Russian Empire (1788–1917) .....                                              | 71  |
| Introduction .....                                                                                                  | 71  |
| Muslim Clergy: The Term and Its Interpretations .....                                                               | 73  |
| Peter the Great's Religious Reforms .....                                                                           | 84  |
| Catherine the Great's Religious Reforms .....                                                                       | 88  |
| Establishment of the Ufa Spiritual Mohammedan Law Assembly .....                                                    | 93  |
| Criticism of OMDs by Synodal Bureaucrats, Orthodox Clergy andMissionaries .....                                 | 104 |
| Criticism of OMDs by Muslim Political Figures and Reform Proposals .....                                            | 110 |
| OMDs Reform Proposals in 1905–1917 .....                                                                            | 117 |
| New Principles of Religious Tolerance After 1905 .....                                                              | 121 |
| Narratives on the Origin of the Muftiate Among the Volga-Ural Tatars .....                                          | 128 |
| Conclusion .....                                                                                                    | 135 |

CHAPTER III

|                                                                              |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Institution of the Muftiate in Soviet Russia (1917–1991) .....           | 147 |
| Introduction .....                                                           | 147 |
| The 1917 All-Russian Muslim Congress in Moscow and the Election of Mufti ... | 150 |
| Diniya Nazaraty: The Muftiate as a Ministry of Religion .....                | 154 |
| “Tolerated Islam” (1917–1929) .....                                          | 159 |
| The Policy of Repression. Diminution of TsDUM (1929–1943) .....              | 165 |
| New System of Muftiates (1943–1953): A Religious “Thaw” in the mid-1940s ... | 169 |
| Khrushchev’s Anti-Religious Campaign (1954–1964) .....                       | 173 |
| The Epoch of Real Socialism (1965–1985) .....                                | 177 |
| Perestroika (1985–1991) .....                                                | 178 |
| Conclusion .....                                                             | 185 |

CHAPTER IV

|                                                                                                                                                               |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| State Confessional Policy in Modern Russia and State-Muftiate Interaction .....                                                                               | 189 |
| Introduction .....                                                                                                                                            | 189 |
| The Council for Religious Affairs under the Council of Ministers of the USSRand the Changed Trajectory of State Religious Policy During Perestroika ..... | 194 |
| The 1990 USSR Law “On Freedom of Conscience and ReligiousOrganizations” .....                                                                             | 199 |
| The 1990 RSFSR Law “On Freedom of Religion” .....                                                                                                             | 205 |
| The 1997 Federal Law “On Freedom of Conscience and on ReligiousAssociations” .....                                                                        | 208 |
| The Concept of Traditional Religions .....                                                                                                                    | 220 |
| “Yarovaya Set of Legislative Amendments” of 2016 and the Legal Status ofIslamic Religious Associations .....                                              | 223 |
| Legal Regulation of Muftiates in Modern Russia .....                                                                                                          | 230 |
| Types of Muftiates in Modern Russia: An Attempt at Classification .....                                                                                       | 232 |
| The Interreligious Council of Russia .....                                                                                                                    | 236 |
| Conclusion .....                                                                                                                                              | 241 |

CHAPTER V

|                                                                                                                                |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Federal Muftiates .....                                                                                                        | 247 |
| Introduction .....                                                                                                             | 247 |
| The Crisis of the Spiritual Administration of Muslims of the European Partof the USSR and Siberia in the Early 1990s ..... | 250 |
| The Clan System in Modern Tatar Society and the Ministers of the IslamicReligion .....                                     | 260 |
| The Central Spiritual Administration of Muslims of Russia (TsDUM) .....                                                        | 263 |
| The Council of Muftis of Russia (SMR) – the Spiritual Administration ofMuslims of the Russian Federation (DUM RF) .....    | 277 |
| Conclusion .....                                                                                                               | 295 |

CHAPTER VI

|                                                                                                                                   |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Independent Regional Muftiates: Case Study of the Spiritual Administration of Muslims of the Republic of Tatarstan (DUM RT) ..... | 299 |
| Introduction .....                                                                                                                | 299 |
| Prerequisites for the Creation of the Spiritual Administration of Muslims of the Republic of Tatarstan (DUM RT) .....             | 303 |
| DUM RT (1992–1998) .....                                                                                                          | 309 |
| The Unification Congress of Muslims of the Republic of Tatarstan (1998) .....                                                     | 312 |
| DUM RT as a Pure Monopoly (1998–2019) .....                                                                                       | 320 |
| The Clan System in Tatarstan and its Influence on Religious Life in the Republic .....                                            | 324 |
| The Policy of the Authorities of Tatarstan in Relation to the Russian Orthodox Church .....                                       | 326 |
| Conclusion .....                                                                                                                  | 329 |

CHAPTER VII

|                                                                                                                                                       |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| “Parallel” Muftiates .....                                                                                                                            | 333 |
| Introduction .....                                                                                                                                    | 333 |
| Prerequisites for the Emergence of “Parallel” Muftiates (on the Example of the Russian Association of Islamic Consensus [All-Russian Muftiate]) ..... | 335 |
| The Russian Association of Islamic Consensus (All-Russian Muftiate) .....                                                                             | 338 |
| The Spiritual Assembly of Muslims of Russia (DSMR) .....                                                                                              | 348 |
| Conclusion .....                                                                                                                                      | 351 |

CHAPTER VIII

|                          |     |
|--------------------------|-----|
| Conclusion .....         | 355 |
| Glossary .....           | 367 |
| List of References ..... | 371 |